ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I stand at the culmination of a long and enriching journey, and I am filled with gratitude for the invaluable support and guidance I have received along the way.

First and foremost, I extend my deepest appreciation to Professor Dr. Hemant Kothari, Dean PG Studies, Pacific University, for giving me this opportunity and timely guidance to undertake this research study.

I would like to express my gratitude towards my guide Dr. Deepika Jain, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology, PAHER University, who rest assured that I was doing the right thing all through my journey in completing the thesis.

There are not enough words to convey my deep gratitude and respect for my research advisor, Dr. Ajay Chaudhary, Associate Professor, Department of Psychology, Government Meera Girls College, Udaipur. He has inspired me to become an independent researcher and helped me realize the power of believing in oneself.

Altogether, their mentorship, unwavering support, and insightful feedback have been instrumental in shaping this thesis. I am profoundly grateful for the countless hours they devoted to refining my research and nurturing my academic growth. I offer my sincere thanks for their time, expertise, and constructive critique. Their diverse perspectives enriched my work and contributed significantly to its depth and rigor.

My family has been the bedrock of my journey. To my mother, Ms. Lubna Zahid & father, Mr. Oan Ali Zahid, sister Ms. Saba Zahid, mother-in-law Ms. Rashida Shahnaz and husband Mr. Shafaat Hussain, I owe a debt of gratitude that words cannot fully express. I am profoundly grateful to my two sons, Afraaz Hussain and Faizaan Hussain, who have been unwavering pillars of support throughout my PhD journey. Afraaz and Faizaan, your belief in my abilities and your willingness to share in the sacrifices demanded by this pursuit have been my greatest motivation. Not to mention the kind of support and constant encouragement which I received from my brother-in-law and my sister-in-law, Mr. Tasir Hussain and Ms. Fakhrunnissa Hussain. My brother, Mr. Adil Ali and sister-in-law, Ms. Nazima Ali, never let me lose sight of my vision and helped me in each phase of this research work.

The one person who has been my source of inspiration throughout my life, my grandmother – Ms. Rashida Kaab Hussain, I wanted to tell her, that you never stop to amaze me and I want to dedicate this PhD to her. The unwavering belief of my family in me, their sacrifices, and their unconditional love sustained me through the challenges of this academic pursuit.

The overwhelming support from my extended family and my friends helped me in sailing through the trough and crest of this roller coaster. Without them I cannot imagine how this journey would have been possible. I would like to extend my thanks to Ms Shamim Sheikh, Ms Zulfiya Sheikh, Mr. Jaswant Jain, Ms. Anju Jain, Mr. Asad Ali, Ms. Sugra Kathawala and Mr. Rishabh Verdia, who provided a supportive network, offering encouragement and intellectual camaraderie. Your presence in my life has been a source of strength. I was equally supported by my school and my colleagues who not only guided me regarding some of the research related work, but also provided a strong support system at work, so that I could balance both the worlds without compromising on quality at either place.

I am deeply indebted to the Pacific University for providing access to all the resources and related facilities which were crucial to this research.

Lastly, this would not have been possible without the active participation of all the schools and colleges and the students and their parents, who willingly spared their valuable time and helped me with all the data collection.

As I conclude this chapter, I am filled with a profound sense of gratitude. Each individual and institution mentioned and those whom I would have missed mentioning here, has played a pivotal role in the realization of this thesis. I reckon this is ALMIGHTY's way to hold my hand in this immensely enriching journey. I offer my deepest thanks to the Almighty for the wisdom, strength, and grace that sustained me throughout this endeavour.
