

INDEX

CHAPTER- I INTRODUCTION		1 – 11
1.1	COVID-19 Pandemic- Setting the stage for an information avalanche	1
1.2	The advent of ‘Infodemic’	2
1.3	Effect of Infodemic on the Pandemic	3
1.4	Need to study the infodemics	4
1.5	The concept of ‘Infodemiology’	5
1.6	Understanding misinformation	6
	1.6.1 Sources of information	7
	1.6.2 Mechanism of misinformation perception	7
1.7	Scenario in developing countries	8
1.8	Responsibility of Individuals	10
1.9	Importance of infodemiology in healthcare professionals	10
CHAPTER- II AIM & OBJECTIVES		12
CHAPTER-III REVIEW OF LITERATURE		13 - 40
3.1	Misinformation Statistics	13
3.2	Scientific Studies	13
	3.2.1 Real-world events	38
	3.2.2 Events associated with political figures	39
	3.2.3 Events in India	39
	3.2.4 Conspiracy theories	40
CHAPTER- IV MATERIALS AND METHODS		41- 42
CHAPTER- V RESULTS		43 – 62
CHAPTER- VI DISCUSSION		63 – 83
CHAPTER- VII CONCLUSION		84 - 85
BIBLIOGRAPHY		86 - 89
ANNEXURE		90 - 100

LIST OF TABLE

Table No.	Particulars	Chapter Page No.
1	Distribution of subjects according to age	43
2	Distribution of subjects according to gender	43
3	Distribution of subjects according to Field of work	44
4	Distribution of subjects according to designation	45
5	Distribution of subjects according to qualification	45
6	Distribution of subjects according to speciality	46
7	Distribution of subjects according to years of experience	47
8	Distribution of subjects according to other questions	47
9	Distribution of subjects according to- What do you think was the nature of the information being provided to you?	49
10	Distribution of subjects according to- . Are you aware of the COVID- 19 related Infodemic?	50
11	Distribution of subjects according to- Do you think false information was being spread for political or economic gains or tom target specific classes of society	50
12	Distribution of subjects according to- Are you aware of any other measures taken by the government to tackle the circulating false information?	51
13	Distribution of subjects according to- Which of the following media impacted you: Television, Newspaper, Radio, Government portal, Government app, Social Media and others	52
14	Distribution of subjects according to -Were you able to distinguish between the myths and true information circulating online impacted you	53
15	Distribution of subjects according to -How often did you cross-check the information that had an impact being provided?	53
16	Distribution of subjects according to - What type of emotions did you experience after getting through the	54

Table No.	Particulars	Chapter Page No.
	information related to COVID-19
17	Distribution of subjects according to - What was the nature of the information that impacted you by your colleagues/faculty/hospital?	55
18	Distribution of subjects according to - Did the government or your hospital make any countermeasures provision to caution you about the false information and enable you to identify it?	56
19	Distribution of subjects according to - Did you have any representation in your hospital that was looked up to for providing reliable information regarding	56
20	Distribution of subjects according to - Was the official WHO, Government and health ministry websites apps helpful in providing a reliable source of information	57
21	Distribution of subjects according to - Did you undergo any health literacy training programs that enabled you to distinguish between true and false information?	57
22	Distribution of subjects according to - Did you play any part in updating others with any valid information about the pandemic situation?	58
23	Distribution of subjects according to - Did you play any part in updating others with any valid information about the pandemic situation? - If yes, how often do you verify the information before forwarding?	59

LIST OF FIGURE

Fig. No.	Particulars	Chapter Page No.
1	The mechanism of an infodemic as depicted by Gallotti et al. in a recent review on human behaviours and risks of infodemic in response to COVID-19	3
2	Various parameters associated with the information in infodemic	4
3	Characteristics of misinformation in infodemic	5
4	Responsibilities on the part of individuals in combatting the infodemic	10
5	Distribution of subjects according to age (years)	43
6	Distribution of subjects according to gender	44
7	Distribution of subjects according to field of work	44
8	Distribution of subjects according to field of designation	45
9	Distribution of subjects according to qualification	46
10	Distribution of subjects according to speciality	47
11	Distribution of subjects according to- How regularly did you seek updates regarding the COVID-19 pandemic	48
12	Distribution of subjects according to- If yes, which media do you use to obtain information	48
13	Distribution of subjects according to- In case of social media, which of the platforms did you use	49
14	Distribution of subjects according to- What do you think was the nature of the information being provided to you?	49
15	Distribution of subjects according to- Are you aware of the COVID- 19 related Infodemic?	50
16	Distribution of subjects according to- Do you think false information was being spread for political or economic gains or tom target specific classes of society	51
17	Distribution of subjects according to- Are you aware of any other measures taken by the government to tackle the	51

Fig. No.	Particulars	Chapter Page No.
	circulating false information?
18	Distribution of subjects according to- Were you able to distinguish between the myths and true information circulating online impacted you	53
19	Distribution of subjects according to- How often did you cross-check the information that had an impact being provided?	54
20	Distribution of subjects according to- What type of emotions did you experience after getting through the information related to COVID-19	54
21	Distribution of subjects according to- What was the nature of the information that impacted you by your colleagues/ faculty/ hospital?	55
22	Distribution of subjects according to- Did you have any representation in your hospital that was looked up to for providing reliable information regarding COVID-19	56
23	Distribution of subjects according to- Was the official WHO, Government and health ministry websites apps helpful in providing a reliable source of information	57
24	Distribution of subjects according to- Did you undergo any health literacy training programs that enabled you to distinguish between true and false information?	58
25	Distribution of subjects according to- Did you play any part in updating others with any valid information about the pandemic situation?	58
26	Distribution of subjects according Are you aware of the COVID-19 related Infodemic over gender	60
27	Distribution of subjects according Do you think false information was being spread for political or economic gains, or to target specific classes of society over gender	61
28	Distribution of subjects according Are you aware of any other measures taken by the government to tackle the	61

Fig. No.	Particulars	Chapter Page No.
	circulating false information? over gender
29	Distribution of subjects according to gender. Were you able to distinguish between the myths and true information circulating online impacted you over gender	62
30	Distribution of subjects according to gender. Have often did you cross-check the information that had an impact being provided? You over gender	62